

NEW SERIES--NUMBER 63

Try One, and If Not Satisfied, It Will Be Taken Back.

THERE is another scandal developing in Washington. It is charged and charged by one who claims he can prove it that the passage of the Texas Pacific Land Grant Bill was procured by bribery and fraud. The sum required to engineer the bill through was $90,000 in cash and $2,000,000 in bonds of the company which was dealt out to congressmen in various sums to secure their votes. One old senator, more avaricious than the balance, demanded $62,000 for the influence of himself and four others of that body. The matter is to be investigated. The Maine paper that said that a man who will buy his way to Congress will be mighty apt to sell his vote after he gets there was strikingly close to the center.

Mr. J. S. LUNNEY, alias J. G. Conney, of Danville, as the Cincinnati Commercial had him, has returned from Washington, whither he went to confer with the President and National Committee in regard to the race for Congress in this district. He was cordially received by each, so the dispatch says, and assurance of hearty co-operation in the election of Mr. Bradley given him. "Hearty co-operation" means an unlimited amount of the two-per-cent. assessment on the salaries of office-holders, but it will avail nothing beyond making money plentiful in the country. The entire corruption fund of the republican party is insufficient to buy Mr. Bradley a seat in Congress from the 8th district of Kentucky.

A NEW ORLEANS masher engaged himself to a young lady and then deserted her. Hearing that he had boasted of his conquest on several occasions, the young lady got even with him by bringing a breach-of-promise suit, fixing her damages at one dollar. He is now the worst crest-fallen rascal in the business with the prospect of becoming more so, when he has the cost of the suit to pay, which must be very large, since she had had every person to whom he had told the story summoned to appear as witness.

A VIRGINIA girl has brought herself into notoriety in a way that the average dandy would never dream of. She has killed, with her own hands, 127 rattlesnakes, and in proof of it exhibits the rattles from every one of them. A girl that is not afraid to tackle a rattlesnake will make it warm for the man she marries if he tries to palm off lodges or other excuses for staying out at night.

NOTWITHSTANDING Joe Blackburn's earnest and commendable protest, Congress has referred the matter of auditing claims arising out of the illness and death of President Garfield to a Treasury commission. Blackburn's remonstrance had the effect however of limiting the entire amount to be divided to $57,000, of which the doctors are to receive not exceeding $35,000; enough, God knows.

THE republicans have been counting considerably on the success of an independent movement in Georgia, but the nomination by acclamation of Alex. H. Stephens for governor, spoils very decidedly the calculation. Mr. Stephens is the most popular man in the State and will be elected without the shadow of a doubt. The people of Georgia swear by the little pigmy.

THE Louisville Democrat says: "A Davies county man claims to have recently seen and conversed with John Wilkes Booth, who is represented to be living in Indiana under an assumed name." Yes, and there will soon be lots of fellows who will claim that Guiteau is still alive and happy notwithstanding his bones are bleaching on top of a tin roof in Washington.

IT is said that the special report of the Census Bureau, which by the way was taken in 1880, will require thirty volumes of 500 pages each, to contain it. Those engaged in getting it up never worked in a newspaper office, else they would have learned the importance of condensing.

THE fate of Senator Ben Hill is the most horrible that one could imagine. With the fearful cancer eating his tongue and throat away, audacious that death is inevitable either by starving or choking, this once strong and great man lies helplessly awaiting, it is said calmly and resignedly, his end.

JOHN D. WHITE will not have it all his own way, not even so far as his party is concerned, in getting back to Congress. Mr. Wilson Owen, a plain but popular republican, has announced himself for that position in White's district and will no doubt give him a lively time.

TO THE DANVILLE TRIBUNE: Yours to hand. We guess as how you might be mistaken. Big Bill has never beaten any body yet. Leastwise not as any body knows on. Even a Durham hull has distanced him more than once in races, and it taint down in the books that he can beat, at this late day, the thorough-bred racer, Little Phil. You're a confidence man, old fellow, but we don't put no confidence in your confidential communications. Bet your sweet life your man'll get Taylored as usual. Ta, ta.

JUDGE WYLLIE has decided to admit the evidence of Walsh in the Star-route cases, but no matter how badly he shows up the thieving Brady, he will not be convicted. Brady is a party man and used much of his ill gotten gains to elect the man who now occupies the White House, and who does not intend that he shall suffer for his crimes.

ONLY one of the thousands of murderers who ought to have been dangled at the end of a rope, did so Friday, and he was worked off in New York for stabbing to death his sweetheart. As usual with those who go hence by the hempen line, he announced that he was going straight home to heaven.

JAMES GARLAND, who killed Joseph Addison in a duel at Petersburg, Va., has been held, without bail, for murder, and if there is any law in Virginia, he will hang. The murder was one of the most cowardly of the many cowardly murders that we have recorded.

NOTES OF CURRENT EVENTS.
-Failures last week 124 against 121 the week before.

-George Gaines was held in the sum of $2,000 to answer the charge of killing Chas. Penn, near Frankfort.

-Thos. Hughes (Tom Brown at Rugby) has been appointed a County Judge in England, at a salary of $7,500 per annum.

-The seat of the sitting member in Congress, Shelby, of Alabama, has been declared vacant, the contestant Smith, having died during the contest.

-Reports from the interior of Egypt are to the effect that the country is given up to cut throats, looters and anarchy. There has been no fighting for a number of days.

-Fifteen fatal cases of lockjaw, caused by wounds from toy pistols July 4, have been reported in Chicago, three in the country. Six boys died in Burlington and three in Peoria.

-Philip Gallenstein, a farmer living near Augusta, Ky., drank a glass of cold spring water when overheated in the harvest field on Friday, and died of violent cramps before daylight the next morning.

-When George Robeson entered the Cabinet of Grant and took the naval portfolio he was so poor that he could hardly pay his washerwomen. Within two years after he got into the Cabinet there was money to his personal credit at five different banks, amounting to $467,548.61.-(C. J.)

-In the Georgia Democratic Convention Thursday, Hon. A. H. Stephens was nominated for Governor; N. C. Barnett, Secretary of State; W. A. Wright, Comptroller General; D. N. Speer, Treasurer; Clifford Anderson, Attorney General; Thomas Hardeman, Congressman-at-large.

-In New York, General Newton M. Curtis, Treasurer of the Republican State Committee, indicted and found guilty of violation of the Federal statute in collecting contributions from Federal office-holders in that city during the last fall election, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1,000.

-Attorney General Brewster has decided that a member of Congress is not an officer of the United States, as the word is used in the statutes, and that a gift to him for campaign purposes is not punishable by law as claimed by Mr. George William Curtis in his controversy with "My dear Hubbard."

-In the Ohio Democratic State Convention, at Columbus, Hon. John W. Okey, the present incumbent, was nominated for Supreme Judge by acclamation. J. W. Newman, of Portsmouth, for Secretary of State, and Henry Weible, of Van Wert county, for member of the Board of Public Works.

-The Attorney General has given an opinion to the Secretary of the Treasury that the request of transportation companies to be allowed to take some 60,000 Chinese laborers through the country from Cuba to China can not be granted under the law as it now stands. This is a beautiful state of affairs.

-The house has passed a bill to increase the amount for which postal money orders may be issued up to $100, and fixing the rate as follows: For $10, 8 cents; $15 to $50, 15 cents; $50 to $100, 20 cents; $100 to $500, 25 cents; $500 to $1,000, 30 cents; $1,000 to $5,000, 35 cents; $5,000 to $10,000, 40 cents; $10,000 to $50,000, 45 cents.

-The Treasury Department decided that the proviso in Section 11 of "the act to enable National Banking Associations to extend their corporate existence," will entitle the holders of the new Three-per-cent. Bonds to be issued in exchange for extended Sixes and Fives to perpetuate the original numbers of the new bonds.

-Second Assistant Postmaster-General Elmer reports that the Star service in the Pacific section is now in operation, at a cost of 49 7/8-100 per cent. cheaper than under former contracts, and also that the cost per mile is 45 39/100 per cent. less. These figures represent a saving of over $2,000,000 annually in the contract term of four years. The section of the country referred to embraces localities of the Star service which are now under discussion in the Star Route trials.

-The Khedive has signed a decree dissolving Ashi Pasha and declaring him a rebel. He has also issued a general order forbidding the Egyptian Army to obey orders from Arabi Pasha, and forbidding the people to pay him taxes. The proclamation asks the people to assist the English, who, it says, are promoting the real interests of Egypt. Measures for the protection of the Suez Canal were discussed at the French Cabinet Council on Sunday, and the necessary credit will probably be moved in the Chamber of Deputies to-day. It is understood that the English and French occupation of Port Said is projected.

BOYLE COUNTY.

Danville.
-Rev. Green Craig, of Chicago, preached at the First Presbyterian Church yesterday, Mr. Green, the pastor not having fully recovered his health.

-Mr. Eugene McGlown left this morning for Kansas City, Mo., where he will engage in business. Mr. McGlown is an experienced dry goods merchant and when in business here was noted for his excellent taste as a purchaser, and his knowledge of the business generally. He carries with him to his new home the kind wishes of many friends.

-Mr. Frank K. Smith, who has had charge of the Western Union Telegraph office at this place for more than a year past, has resigned his position and left on Monday night for Marshall, Texas, where he will have a more lucrative situation with the same company. Mr. Smith is a young gentleman of good family and by his strict attention to business and correct deportment made many friends while in Danville. They wish him success in his new home.

-On Wednesday next an exciting event is to transpire in Danville, it being no less than a game of Base Ball between a Louisville Club and the one Danville is proud to claim as her own. The excitement is intense, strong men gather in knots on the street corners discussing the probable result, fair ladies are preparing banners and button hole bouquets for their favorites and the Egyptian was is forgotten as the opposing hosts of Louisville and Danville approach each other.

-Detective James Frost, on Saturday, arrested the robber who has been breaking into dwellings in Danville recently. He gave the name of Willis Harris, and is a vicious looking negro with a bad eye. He had on his person a watch and chain belonging to Mr. Alex. Daugherty, whose house was burglarized last Wednesday. He waited an examination on this charge and went to jail in default of bail.

-On the charge of entering Mrs. Bettie Fox's house his trial is set for Wednesday. A former guard in the Jeffersonville, Indiana Penitentiary, now here, is almost sure that Harris was a convict in that institution a short time ago.

-The rush of visitors to Carrigan's Chalybeate Cure at the Junction of Harrods Run, and Meaux's branch still continues. The hotel accommodations are spacious and the bill of fare conducive to health and longevity, consisting generally of streaked bacon and onions, with roasting ears in their season. The latter article referred to, the guests are expected to procure from neighboring corn fields, when the owners are absent or asleep. The only possible objection to these waters is that they do not assimilate well with a certain exhilarating fluid which guests from Danville formerly brought with them in half-pint, pint and quart bottles. But this objection really no longer exists, for the reason that there is no longer any of the exhilarating fluid in Danville, the last drop having been spilled out away by order of the Worthy Chief Templar of the world.

LETTER FROM CRAB ORCHARD SPRINGS.
Editor Interior Journal.
The past week at the Springs has been one full of pleasure to the visitors, not only in the parlors of the hotel where music, dancing and love-making seemed to be the order of the day, but also in our outdoor exercises and sports, such as excursions in "bus and on horseback," to the Dripping Spring, Sulphur Spring and Burning Well, and also a visit on Saturday afternoon to the race course, which is now fixed up in splendid style with seats, awnings and judges' stand. Also pool selling which has been quite an institution. There were three races, one for all untrained horses, two in three heats; one for fast mules, and one for gentlemen riders. In first race 4 horses; 2nd, 4 mules; 3rd, 5 horses, were entered. The riding was fine, the horses fleet and fun in abundance over the mule race. The band from the Springs was there and discoursed sweet music between the heats. There will be another race next Saturday afternoon at 4 P. M.

There are about 175 now here and many more expected during this week. On yesterday's train there came from Louisville, Mr. John White and family, Mr. Guthrie and family, Col. Murrell and family, Capt. Silas Miller, formerly of the Galt House, and a dozen others whose names I have not yet heard. Every thing is delightful and the table still held to its proper altitude. We have here now fashionable belles from various points, Memphis adding one more by the last train in the person of Miss Meacham. The young bucks follow her with adoring eyes where she goes, and already a spirit of rivalry has sprung up as to who may be the favored one for rides, walks, and polkas in the ball-room. But my opinion is that there there is so much beauty and fascination that there must be some "dark horse" lurking behind in Memphis, who, much to the dismay of present admirers, may at any time "pop up." But let their motto be duo numerum vincimus, and have as much innocent fun as they can, for you know that when the "cat's away the mice will play," and she looks as if she could play with a score of them at Cupid's pranks before the "dark horse" comes.

But the great feature of the week was the Fancy Dress Ball of Friday evening. With a glorious spirit of determination, which is much to be admired, Mrs. Johnson, of Lexington, as the commander-in-chief and the young ladies as high prizes took the animal by the horns and determined there should be no such word as fail, and the result shows what can be accomplished by a competent General. Indeed, your correspondent thinks that Cæsar, Hannibal, Napoleon, Yen Mokke and Wellington sink into utter nothingness when compared to her and her well organized force. At 9 o'clock the band struck up a march and the procession formed two and two, and headed by Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Dr. Cheatham, of Louisville, marched majestically into and around the ball-room, where a fine opportunity was afforded for "inspection." It was indeed a beautiful sight to see about 60 couples in gorgeous array. The surprise of the many visitors was great at witnessing the number as well as the quality of the costumes. I should like to give in detail the appearance of each, but space in your readable paper amounts to much to you, and I will therefore give you a limited number and refer you to the Courier Journal for the rest:

Mrs. Joe Ferguson, of Lexington, as "Diana," in handsome satin de Lyncs, Spanish lace polonaise and magnificent diamonds; Mrs. Cheatham as "Undine," in aqua marine, sea form satin and diamonds; Mrs. C. M. Johnson, of Lexington, as "Lady Washington," in black silk, white embroidered mull apron and neckerchief to match. These articles belonged to her grandmother, and in days long gone by were brought from New Orleans to Lexington on horse back. She was beautiful in the personation and attracted universal admiration; Miss Addie Beaumont, as "Patience," in blue and crimson satin was a feast for the eyes of many admirers, and played her part to perfection; Miss Beaumont as "Marie Antoinette" in pink satin, point lace overdress and diamonds was a beautiful as a "mid Summer's night dream," and many a sigh was heaved by many a gay Lothario, at the bare possibility of a failure; Miss Annie Shelby was irresistible as a "Bucire deck" in white mull covered with cards. There was poetry in her motion and grace in every step, and her host of friends fairly worshipped her; Miss Lettie Shelby was "Night" in black satin and tulle, well studied with stars. She was brilliant in her wit and humor and lovely in person. Doubtless many a gallant beau wished that he could be the man in the moon and surrounded by such beautiful stars, with her bright eyes as representatives of the morning and evening stars; Miss Stark was beautiful as an "English Huntress" with gun and hunting knife as ornaments, and trod the floor as proud as an Amazon; Miss Madge Watson, of Houston, Texas, in white tulle, lace and diamonds was much admired and quite a belle; Miss Anna Hall Frizzell, of Nashville, in white mull lace and pearls was also charming in appearance, and continually surrounded by admirers; Miss Mary Owens, of Stanford, in white satin, and Spanish lace, with rubies, was the observed of all observers, and made an impression which will last; Miss Annie Buchanan, of Crab Orchard, a lovely blonde, was dressed in white veiling and Spanish lace, with diamond ornaments. She was much admired and well attended. Messrs. Joe Hayden, Grimes and Dr. Hugh Reid, of Stanford, were the escorts in attendance upon young ladies from your city, and added handsomely to a fault; Mr. John A. Fleet, (see Louisville Hotel), appeared as Admiral of her Majesty's ship "Pinafore." His costume was elegant and costly; "Little Butter Cup" was by his side and to were his cousin and his cunts and his uncles. He played his part well; Mr. Hale, of Lexington, was an "English Jockey" with appropriate costume, including cap, spurs and boots. He did it well. Mr. Ed. McCallum, of Louisville, was splendid and graceful as "Don Juan." His fine face and smooth address, and winning ways were Don like in the extreme; Mr. Joe Ferguson, of Lexington, was "Mephistopheles" to perfection. His handsome person, flaming costume, pointed shoes, mousetraps pointed, his general get up was so fine that each moment we expected to see him break out in song from the Opera. Perfect success. Young Mr. Joe Robinson impersonated the character of "Yankee."

His handsome and happy face was so wreathed with smiles, that one would naturally think his Hebece, the beautiful Jewess, was not far distant. But this is too much already and will say that on next Friday night a grand dress ball, Saturday the races, and on Friday week glass balls and pigeon tournament presided over by Mr. Berry, of Louisville, in the house of Griffith & Son.

C. O. SPRINGS, July 24.

Central Kentucky Medical Association.
The Mid Summer meeting of this Association at Crab Orchard Springs on Wednesday last was one of the most pleasant ever recorded in its history. While the attendance was not so large as ordinary, those present were chiefly the working class, whose minds and hearts are interested intensely in the advancement of the science and art of physic and the elevation of the standards of the profession.

The narrative of this Association and its success show what the united efforts towards the accomplishment of an object can achieve when persistently directed to that end. It has been an actor and played its part in the exciting drama of medical events.

At this meeting, the literary efforts were numerous and of a high order of merit. The first on the program was an article read by Dr. Ap. Morgan Vance, of Louisville, a paper replete with interest and instruction. Dr. Wm. Cheatham, of Louisville, next read a valuable paper on "Wounds of the Eye and their Treatment." Dr. F. O. Young, of Lancaster, presented a report of an "Unique Case of Placental Presentation, with Extraction of Same," and a success recorded. Dr. Johnstone, of Danville, read a scientific essay on the "Operation for Morgagnian Cataract." Dr. Carpenter, of Stanford, read a paper on the "Therapeutics of Otolaryngology and the Advancement of Knowledge in Aural Diseases."

The committee on Necrology (Brown, Johnstone and Bailey) presented a Memorial of our late Fellow, Dr. Samuel P. Craig. Dr. Johnstone brought before the Association, merely for its reading and not for action, a paper embracing a series of resolutions which look to the elevation of medical education in the State of Kentucky, and the expurgation from the rolls of incompetents and charlatans.

A vote of thanks was tendered the distinguished gentlemen from Louisville for their papers, and with this opportunity the Association return its sincerest regards to the Manager of the Springs Hotel for courtesies extended.

The next meeting will be at Danville, the 3d Wednesday in October, when Dr. Peyton will open the debate on "Necrology and its Treatment." SECRETARY.

Rather Caustic.
Senator Butler, of South Carolina, delivered himself as follows in the Senate Friday. "Mr. President: I observe in the Record this morning that a person in another place made a wanton attack on my character, and committed a breach of the privileges of this body, for which he was not called to order, in discussing a contested election case. I shall not at this late day be betrayed into a controversy with this individual, whose acquaintance I have never had the misfortune to make, but shall rather leave him to the judgment and contempt of all honorable men for attacking another in a forum where he (under the cover of the privileges of that forum) could not be answered, for declining to allow the correction of the falsehoods he was uttering, the garbling of the evidence, perversion of the truth and falsification of the record, and refusing to give the person attacked the benefit of his own statement. I have withstood the mottoes of the Radical party in the past, and can afford to dismiss with this brief notice the yelping of this cur of low degree. The name of this creature, I believe, is Samuel H. Miller."

--In the Maryville (Mo.) Times we notice the following compliment to a 4th of July oration delivered by Hon. G. A. C. ECHSTER, formerly of this place: "It was full of ideas, new and sterling, and delivered in most eloquent terms and tones. It made a deep impression on all who heard it and will doubtless set them all to doing that hardest of all work, viz: thinking."

SQUIRE M. C. PORTMAN is announced in this issue as a candidate for re-election to the office of Magistrate. He has a most conscientious officer, and all who know him are confident that his wealth, eyes are always open to the interest of the public as he sees it.
COL. THOMAS LOVELLY JONES, candidate for Governor, has, "at the request of the State Central Committee," consented to "speak for the democratic party" at a number of places, including Stanford, where he will hold forth on 1 P. M. August 4th. It is very clever in Col. Jones to oblige the Committee.
THE NEW R. R.--Capt. Geo. H. McKinney has received a letter from Mr. W. H. Spradlin, of the K. C. Engineer Corps, that he will arrive here tomorrow to ride over the proposed railroad from Stanford to Gallatin, Tenn. Col. Varner will likely accompany him and perhaps Mr. D. W. Vandever will go with them as far as the Casey and Adair line. This begins to look like business and we God speed the good work.

Elder W. H. CLAY's advertisement brought his mule to time. It had followed some one home, who upon finding whose it was returned it to the owner.
If OUR Stanford boys had not made so bad a record recently, that Somerset nine would never have dared to send the challenge which we publish in another column.
THE Madison Fair Association offers greater inducements this year than ever. Those races each day will draw, when wanted quilts and fat roosters cease to be attractive.

MISS McALISTER & MALLER have secured the services of Mr. Parker, an experienced miller from the large mills of the North West, and are confident that they can give the best satisfaction in flour.
HARRIS & DAWSON have just received 15 tons of Lake Ice, which they will sell in small lots at 11 cents per pound. Persons wanting large lots can get it on reasonable terms. They still sell manufactured ice at 1 cent per pound.
We very much fear that our old friend, W. H. Miller Esq., is going to the bad. He was actually out driving Sunday, with that arch political enemy, Col. W. D. Bradley. Shun him company young man, and remember that evil communications corrupt good manners.
THE LANS DELAY--Bart Simpson, who several years ago, killed the County Clerk of Clay and who has four times been on trial for the offense, was acquitted at London, Friday. There were hung juries in three of the trials. The length of time since the killing and the fact that Col. W. D. Bradley was of counsel for the defense the last time, accounts for the result. Judge J. H. Haven, of the Shelbyville District, presided.
THE Republican, that is nine whites and two blacks, held a "large and enthusiastic meeting" here Saturday afternoon. The object was to appoint delegates to the District Convention which is to be held here to nominate Col. W. G. Bradley, who has been a candidate for Congress for several months. The question of putting out an opposition ticket was discussed, but it was decided that the game was not worth the candle, and of a consequence, the idea was abandoned.

A SINGULAR accident happened to Miss Holzelman, daughter of Frank Holzelman, of the East end of the county. A few days ago, she, with several others of the boys and girls went whortleberry hunting. A storm threatened, and they started to return home, when her horse shied at something and threw her off. Her foot caught in the stirrup and the animal becoming frightened dashed off dragging her along until it was released. Her companions had by this time reached her, when they were surprised to find that she was apparently unhurt. A further examination, however, revealed the fact that one of her ears had been torn off close to the head. A close search was made for the missing member, but no trace of it was found. The young lady is indeed to be sympathized with for her irreparable loss.
THE BARRECK--Judge M. H. Dwyer stopped off here yesterday on his return from the Barreque in Adair. He says that there were some 5,000 people present and that he never saw a happier or better behaved crowd in his life. Owing to the death of Cal. Morgan, a brother-in-law of Gen. Hood Duke, that gentleman was not present to deliver the presentation speech, but Maj. A. E. Richards filled his place in a most acceptable manner, delivering one of the handsomest little speeches he ever heard. Col. Wolford gracefully accepted the fine horse, saddle and bridle, and as usual was very eloquent in his speech of thanks. During the day, Judge Snuffy, in response to loud calls, made a telling speech. Judge Dwyer also responded to an urgent demand and we suppose spoke in his usual happy strain. The meeting was a very successful one in warming the people up to the importance of the coming election.

MARRIAGES.
--Mr. W. T. Brown obtained license yesterday to marry Miss Nora, daughter of Mr. Isaac Camblen of this county. The groom was born in England of Irish parents.
RELIGIOUS.
--The Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions has appropriated $840,000 for its work the coming year.
--There are 637 churches in Philadelphia--a figure which entitles that town to be called "the city of churches."
--Rev. Green Clay Smith, of the Mt. Sterling Baptist church, resigned in order to become an evangelist. His resignation was not accepted.
--Elders W. L. Williams and J. G. Livingston will commence a protracted meeting at Lawson's School-house, in Garrard county, next Friday night.
--The New York Sun has a several column description of Rev. Geo. D. Barnes and his methods, which is one of the best we have seen. It is copied in full in last Saturday's Cincinnati Commercial.
--The meeting at the Christian church is progressing satisfactorily. The pastor, Dr. J. W. Cox, has preached four very impressive sermons, and last night Elder Reynolds, who had arrived in the afternoon, occupied the pulpit. Services will be held at 10 A. M. and 7:30 P. M. each day.
--There was an organization on Sunday last of a Christian congregation of sixty members at the new meeting house, just completed near Boone's School House on Dix River in this county, to be known as the Christian church, to be known as the Christian church, to be known as the Christian church. They are informed that the house of worship in the county outside of the town, and will lose nothing by comparison with them. Elder Jos. (I. Livingston, who has been mainly instrumental in building up the cause of Christ in that neighborhood, was unanimously selected to preach for them another year. Thus an earnest and good man is rewarded in this life which is an earnest of the life to come.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP.
--Ten work miles sold in Montgomery at $175 per head.
--Dr. T. H. Montgomery sold to W. G. Wallace, for Ben (Givens), a thorough-bred bull calf for $13.
--H. Y. Berry & Co. have bought 60,000 bushels of wheat at 95 cents to $1. They say the crop is magnificent. (Woodford Sun).
--Mr. George D. Wearen received the following from New York last evening: August wheat $1.14 in this city, $1.13, in Baltimore, a decline of 11 cents since Saturday.
--E. D. Hunter threshed a field of wheat that averaged 36 bushels and 14 pounds to the acre. It was the German Amber variety and was raised from seed obtained in Canada last fall.
--Hon. R. J. White, of Madison, bought of Hon. J. S. Owsley, of this county, 108 feeders for October delivery at 5 cents. Mr. White also bought of Dick Moore a lot of cattle at $33 per head.
--John M. Hall sold to J. G. Lynn 100 ewes at $2.50 per head; not picked; also 40 to Huddler at same price, and to J. N. Reynolds 45 at same price. He also sold to Craig Lynn 4 cattle for $105.
--The wheat crop in Kentucky this year is surpassing expectations. The whole State crop is now estimated at 18,000,000 bushels, against a range in former crops of from 7,000,000 to 11,000,000 bushels. Ninety cents is the highest price offered by dealers now.

--The well-known race-horse Runnymede has been down hopelessly. He was worked a mile and a half Saturday at Saratoga, and after returning to his stable it was discovered that the tendon in the hind leg had given away. Myer Bros. gave $3,000 for Runnymede a year ago.
--Below are the ruling prices for provisions, &c., in Stanford: Bacon shoulders, 12c; ham, 18c; sides, 18c. Flour, $3.00 to $3.50; corn, $5.00; meal, $1.25 per bushel; oats, 8c; coffee, 12c to 20c; molasses, 6c; to 7c; dried apples, 8c; peaches, 8c; new Irish potatoes, 50c. per bushel; butter, 20c; cheese, 20c; eggs, 10c; salt by 7 bushel lib. $2.
LINCOLN COUNTY.
Crab Orchard.
--The Fancy Ball at the Springs Friday night was an elegant affair.
--James T. Chadwick bought of Miss Katie Shigel, a handsome saddle mare for $75.
--Little Walter Saunders is still in a most critical condition; no hopes of his recovery. He has been the most patient sufferer we ever saw.
--Misses Eliza and Maggie Harris are guests of Mrs. Willie Buchanan. Mr. Ballard of Richmond, is the guest of J. T. Ballard. Mr. H. H. Harris, of Louisville, is at home on a brief visit. Miss Maggie Adams is with Miss Mollie Taten. Mrs. Fannie Green of Stanford, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Sam Harris.
--A Sam Taten was driving down Lancaster street a few mornings ago, his horse made a sudden turn to go into the livery stable, but missed it and ran down under the bridge instead. It was quite a narrow escape as the embankment is ten or fifteen feet high. Driver and horse escaped unhurt, but the wagon was slightly injured.

GARRARD COUNTY.
Lancaster.
--The Baptist meeting closed Thursday night.
--Rev. R. H. Kinnaird, of Midway, will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday.
--The young men gave a nice little hop at the Mason House Friday night in honor of the young ladies visiting here.
--Three of our young men have organized themselves into a pedestrian club and propose walking to Cincinnati about the first of September.
--The death rate in this community this Summer has been greatly above the average, but the deaths have been among the very old people.
--The interest in the election seems to be on the increase. Both sides are working hard and it would not be safe to stake your money on either side. So don't.
--The question that is agitating the mind of the public hereabouts, is, Why did Jim Duncan want to hurt his head against the church wall Sunday night? A few hold points on this but won't divulge.
--Dr. W. H. Pettus is very sick. His physicians pronounce his case critical and have telegraphed for his sons, one in Louisville, the other in Paducah, to come at once. Mr. Wm. Gray, a very old but remarkably strong healthy man, was taken seriously ill a few days ago and his recovery considered doubtful, but he is improving.
--Lancaster has the building fever bad. George D. Hurdett & Co.; J. G. Sweeney & Son; Jan. & W. S. Miller and E. Brown, will each build nice brick store-rooms on their lots in the "burnt district." Hurdett & Co. will front on Danville Street as well as on the public square, thus making five rooms. May it prove contagious and attract their neighbors fatally.
--Misses Ellen Hanks and Fannie Lillard, of Lawrenceburg, are visiting Miss Nell Duncan. Mess. Bell Walker and Pettie Faulkner, of the county, are guests of Misses Lizzie Walker and Jennie Faulkner. Misses Claude Hull, Will Dedman and Silas Joseph, of Lawrenceburg, were at the hop. Miss Lee Handifer is visiting Miss Mamie Olds. Mrs. W. H. Greenleaf, of St. Louis, Mo., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Owsley.

ROBT. S. LYTLE.

PULASKI COUNTY.
Somerset.
--Miss Annie Belden is at Mrs. Newman's for a short stay. Mrs. L. B. Porch and daughter are at J. M. Wilson's.
--The C. N. O. & T. P. R. R. has avoided a strike by raising wages to $1.75 per trip. They very generously dated their order back to July 1st.
--Over $30,000 worth of property changed hands last county court day. Land brought good prices, and the entire market was rather stiff.
--The Murlock, miner at Barren Fork, got his small finger slightly mashed between the cars Friday. Guess he will be content to dig coal and let car-coupling alone in the future.
--The Borden & Thomas nines tried conclusions again Friday. Score 14 to 8 in favor of former. If the Stanford nine want to take any lessons we think we can give them some instructions.
--Col. Morris went to Pine Knot Thursday to prosecute some scamps for throwing into the windows of a passenger coach, but when he arrived the birds had flown. The officials are confident of catching them.
--The republican county ticket will go through without opposition, but there will be a hot fight over Congressional honors. Capt. Carr and Col. Wolford both made a good impression here at their speaking, and the friends of each are prepared to waste in neck deep.

WAYNE COUNTY.
Monticello.
--An infant child of B. F. Oatts is in articulo mortis of enteric and pulmonary diseases.
--Hampton Prentiss, of whom mention was made in your last issue, died of the injuries received from the fall.
--Born to the wife of G. W. Flemming, a daughter. Robert McKeechne has also been presented with a daughter.
--A little five-year-old son of Rowland Hubbard had his elbow badly dislocated by falling from a fence a short time ago.
--Uncle Henry Huffaker sold a pair of oxen to R. Burnett, weighing 3750 pounds for $150. Doc Shearer sold 3 mule colts to James Duncan for $175.
--Col. Robert Metcalf and family, of New Mexico, are visiting friends in this vicinity. He has recently bought and presented to his niece, Miss Mary Flemming, the house and lot in Monticello, known as the Tuttle property.
--If the trustees of Monticello would prohibit the hitching of horses on the streets, have the citizens to cleanse and disinfect the streets, alleys, back yards, privy vaults, &c., the coming autumn might be very much more healthy than was the last one. The dampness and warmth of the present season will tend greatly to produce malaria and promote the causes of synchial diseases generally.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.
Sam. M. Burdett, Editor.
--Yesterday was Court Court Day. The magistrates were in attendance to receive the delinquent list from the sheriff.
--A freight train jumped off the track at the mouth of No. 6 tunnel in Laurel County, last Friday, causing a delay of an hour or more to the South bound passenger train.
--Mr. F. L. Thompson is preparing to build a new store-room on the lot adjoining the building he now occupies. The work will be under the supervision of Mr. S. H. Thompson.
--Jack Hornsby was arrested Saturday by Constable John Smallwood, on a bench warrant charging him with carrying concealed deadly weapons, and in default of $50 bail was committed to jail.
--Having had two days of sunshine, farmers and tan-bark shippers begin to hope that the wet weather has spent itself. The wheat has not been damaged by the rains, but the tan-bark business has been materially interfered with.
--The colored people held services in the Court House Sunday morning, afternoon and night. They are making an effort to build a new church near town, and took up a collection looking to that end. A very liberal amount was subscribed.
--There is very little said about the election of Magistrates in the various precincts of the county. The people should see to it that good men are chosen. In the Livingston precinct A. J. Pike and J. R. Calloway are both candidates for re-election, and in this precinct M. E. Mullins will be re-elected.
--In the Laurel Circuit Court last week, Judge S. E. Deffenawer sitting as special judge, B. P. Simpson, charged with murder, was acquitted. He had been three times tried before, each trial resulting in a hung jury. Simpson killed James White, clerk of the Clay County Court, several years ago. In addition to his former strong array of counsel, he was defended at his last trial by Hon. W. O. Bradley.
--Tom Moore was tried last Friday before Judge McClure on the charge of maliciously shooting and wounding John Burton. The testimony showed that Burton began the difficulty and fired the first two shots. His pistol was discharged by accident the first time, but the second time he fired straight at Moore. Then Moore fired and wounded Burton. Moore was acquitted on the ground that he shot in self defense. A warrant was issued against him for carrying concealed weapons on which he gave bond to the Circuit Court. Burton's wound still confines him to his bed, but is thought he will recover.
--Young Mr. Taylor, of the Glades precinct, having become desperately unwell with Miss Reynolds, a neighbor girl, determined to marry her. Miss H. was willing, but the parents of the train objected strenuously to any such proceeding. Taylor then attempted to carry the young lady to a place where parental objections would not be in the way. In his first effort he was unsuccessful, but last week he met with better luck. They went to Tennessee and returned man and wife. Two of young Taylor's brothers had married sisters of Miss Reynolds. It would seem that these people are keeping all the riches in the family with a vengeance.

--ABOUT PEOPLE-- Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Weber and Misses Annie Kirtley, Cleo, Williams and Fannie Bragg are visiting friends in London. Miss Mollie Kennedy, a very handsome young lady from Louisville, who had been visiting Mrs. L. B. Dean, at Pine Hill, returned home last week. Spradlin returned last week from a visit to Tennessee and has taken his former place in the K. C. R. R. Corp. Mr. Frank P. Kelley and party of the K. C. spent Sunday here. They are still surveying the Roundstone route.
